

eXosip2 Publication Management

SIP messages and call control API

Functions

```
int eXosip_build_publish (struct eXosip_t *excontext, osip_message_t message, const char *to,
    const char *from, const char *route, const char *event, const char *expires, const char *ctype, const char *body)
int eXosip_publish (struct eXosip_t *excontext, osip_message_t *message, const char *to)
```

Detailed Description

Function Documentation

```
int eXosip_build_publish ( struct eXosip_t * excontext, osip_message_t  message,
                           const char * to,
                           const char * from,
                           const char * route,
                           const char * event,
                           const char * expires,
                           const char * ctype,
                           const char * body
                           )
```

build publication for a user. (PUBLISH request)

Parameters

excontext eXosip_t instance.
message returned published request.
to SIP url for callee.
from SIP url for caller.
route Route used for publication.
event SIP Event header.
expires SIP Expires header.
ctype Content-Type of body.
body body for publication.

```
int eXosip_publish ( struct eXosip_t * excontext,
                    osip_message_t * message,
                    const char * to
                    )
```

Send an Publication Message (PUBLISH request).

Parameters

excontext eXosip_t instance.

message is a ready to be sent publish message .

to the aor of the publish request