eXosip2 request outside of dialog

Functions

int	eXosip_message_build_request (struct eXosip_t *excontext, osip_message_t message, const char *method, const char *to, const char *from, const char *route)
int	eXosip_message_send_request (struct eXosip_t *excontext, osip_message_t *message)
int	eXosip_message_build_answer (struct eXosip_t *excontext, int tid, int status, osip_message_t answer)
int	eXosip_message_send_answer (struct eXosip_t *excontext, int tid, int status, osip_message_t *answer)

Detailed Description

Function Documentation

int eXosip_message_build_request (	struct eXosip_t *	excontext,
	osip_message_t 	message,
	const char *	method,
	const char *	to,
	const char *	from,
	const char *	route
)

Build a default request message.

This method will be updated to send any message outside of dialog In this later case, you'll specify the method to use in the second argument.

Parameters

excontext	eXosip_t instance.
message	Pointer for the SIP request to build.
method	request method. (like "MESSAGE" or "PING"...)
to	SIP url for callee.
from	SIP url for caller.
route	Route header for request. (optional)

int eXosip_message_send_request (struct eXosip_t * excontext, osip_message_t * message
)

Send an request.

Parameters

      excontext eXosip_t instance.

      message   SIP request to send.

---

int eXosip_message_build_answer (struct eXosip_t * excontext,
int   tid,
int   status,
osip_message_t  answer
)

Build answer for a request.

Parameters

      excontext eXosip_t instance.

      tid   id of transaction.

      status   status for SIP answer to build.

      answer   The SIP answer to build.

---

int eXosip_message_send_answer (struct eXosip_t * excontext,
int   tid,
int   status,
osip_message_t * answer
)

Send answer for a request.

Parameters

      excontext eXosip_t instance.

      tid   id of transaction.

      status   status for SIP answer to send.

      answer   The SIP answer to send. (default will be sent if NULL)